Title: Hop-on Joburg Art Galleries with Thabo the Tourist

Description:

Hop-on Joburg art galleries with Thabo the Tourist, is the first of its kind therapeutic art gallery experience in South Africa focused on attracting visitors from all background aiming to break-away from the traditional art gallery audience that is limited to adults and art aficionados.

On this tour we will be hopping on Joburg's most prestigious art galleries, paying attention to the art world. We focus on introducing you to new exhibitions having discussions about the artworks which will help you think about what you are looking at more deeply trying to make you notice the details you might otherwise overlook on your own. Clients gets the opportunity to be guided out of their comfort zone, receive a positive experience that is defined by their own interests and receive the healing power of art through observing art within art gallery environments in a more memorable, relaxed and a fun way.
